

DRESS

Consideration for other Members is vital for harmony in a successful Club and a style of dress, which may give offence to others, should be avoided both in the Clubhouse and on the Course.

The following guidelines have been set down by the Committee, but must be regarded as the minimum standards acceptable. In the furtherance of such standards the General Manager or his delegate may object to any particular dress not befitting the standard of the Club.

It is the duty of all Members to see that their visitors and they themselves adhere to these rules and thereby maintain the Club's required standard.

GENTLEMEN

On the Course

All shirts must have collars (unless they are golf shirts which the Pro Shop carries) and be worn tucked into trousers. Tailored shorts are permitted but are to be worn with long golf socks, or white short socks with or without a Golf Club or other logo, or white ankle height socks. 'Cargo' style shorts, denim jeans of any colour, track suits, or the types of jeans bearing brand names or other similar motifs are not permitted on the course. Regulation golf shoes must be worn on the course. Sandals, jogging shoes and tennis type shoes are not regarded as suitable golfing attire. Metal spikes are not permitted.

In the Clubhouse

Suitable golfing attire may be worn in the Members' Bar. Smart casual attire may be worn in the upstairs Lounge and Dining Room unless a jacket and tie is specified.

The wearing of boat shoes without socks is permitted.

In the Members' Bar, the Pro Shop, Office and Locker Rooms and at Theme Nights held in the upstairs Lounge and Dining Room, denim jeans (not stone-washed or ripped) may be worn and dress shirts with collars are permitted to be worn untucked, if they are fitted or designed to be worn in that manner.

On occasions when alfresco dining is held on the upstairs terrace, dress shorts are permitted to be worn.

LADIES

On the Course

Tailored slacks, tailored shorts and divided skirts are permissible. Other shorts, mini-skirts, 'cargo' pants, denim jeans/skirts of any colour, and beach-type garments are not permissible. Shirts can be worn with or without collars but if worn without collars they must have a banded neck line. Shirts not tucked in are to have a band or be a fitted garment designed to be worn outside lower body apparel.

In the Clubhouse

Golfing attire is permissible at all times in the Members' Bar. In the upper sections of the Clubhouse on competition days, Ladies may also wear suitable golfing attire or smart casual attire on other days.

In the Members' Bar, the Pro Shop, Office and Locker Rooms and at Theme Nights held in the upstairs Lounge and Dining Room, denim jeans (not stone-washed or ripped) may be worn.
